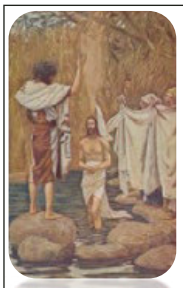
January 8th & 9th, 2022: The Baptism of the Lord

The Church Teaches...



In Baptism, Jesus was given His public mission and, ultimately, His destiny on the Cross. Today's Gospel (Luke 3, 15-22) should lead us to ask, then: what were we given in Baptism? The most important answer is salvation, redemption, and eternal life, but there is much more.

We were given our identity in Jesus Christ. We were given a place in God's Kingdom. We were given an indelible mark, making us members of the Body of Christ. We were given the Holy Spirit, and the gifts with which the Spirit blesses us. And we were given abundant grace!

Some people approach Baptism for their children out of obligation and, honestly, with little intention to keep the promises they make when having their children Baptized. This is obviously a sad development in our modern society. If parents understood all that Baptism means, they might approach the Sacrament with more enthusiasm. (We can hope!)

Jesus' Baptism signifies His deep devotion to the Father and God's plan for Salvation. Take some time today (and throughout this week) to reflect on your own Baptism and all that it means to you! And say a prayer for those parents who will ask to have their children Baptized this year.

Going a little deeper… At His Baptism, that Spirit came down upon Jesus – an expression of the desire of the Father: that He might bring "true justice" to all. A truly just society is one where everyone has what they need, where their dignity is respected and affirmed, and where people live in right relationships with God and with each other.

So, St. Matthew will later apply the words of the prophet Isaiah to Jesus: "He will not argue or shout, or make loud speeches in the streets. He will persist until He causes justice to triumph, and in Him all peoples will put their hope." (Matthew 12, 19-20) Thus, the Gospel expresses a picture of the compassionate Jesus who welcomed sinners and ate with them. He searched for the one, lost sheep. How does He search relentlessly for us? How does He draw us near to His loving heart? Does His care for us encourage us to care better for each other?

Masks are now required for everyone who enters the church! Please keep masks on through the whole of the Mass.

- Our parish's desire is to keep everyone safe.
- A "local dispensation" is granted to all those unable to attend Mass because of poor health, age, or any other reason (i.e., protecting the health of your kids!).

A Parish Christmas Gift: Life is Messy, by Matthew Kelly.

Be sure to take a copy of the new Matthew Kelly book, Life is Messy.

He explains how life is not a "color within the lines" exercise. It is, instead, a wild and outrageous invitation full of uncertain outcomes. It is filled with delightful mysteries and frustrating predicaments.

Take a chance on this engaging book, which tries to answer the question: Can someone who is broken be healed and become more loveable than ever before?

The 2022 Holy Cross Parish Calendars are now available!—Please pick up your calendar at the church entrances and at the parish office front porch "treasure chest."

Thank you to our friends at Hustad Funeral Home for faithfully donating these beautiful holiday (and year-long) favorites over the years. Their generosity is appreciated!

The Church's Calendar— the Christmas Season

January 9th: The Baptism of the Lord— The Baptism of the Lord is the third of three great manifestations (or revelations) which characterize the Christmas season. Today is a kind of transition, we have come to the end of the Christmas season. The Epiphany has traditionally been the last of the Twelve Days of Christmas and now we are entering the first week of the Ordinary Season.
The three great manifestations we have been celebrating are:
a) Christmas– when God comes among us with the Good News for the poor, the outcast and the sinner. St. Luke tells us this is where Jesus is born in poverty and the first to come to pay him homage are poor and marginalized shepherds.
b) Epiphany– when God comes among us with a message of salvation for everyone, for all the people of the world, and not just for one select group. St. Matthew tells us of the strange visitors from the East.
c) The Baptism of Jesus– where God is seen as specially present in Jesus and working in Him and through Him. Are you Baptized? Guess what? He wants to work in you and through you, too!

"God in heaven, you revealed Christ as your Son by the voice that spoke over the waters of the Jordan. May all who share His life through Baptism follow His path of service and reflect the glory of His Kingdom! Amen."

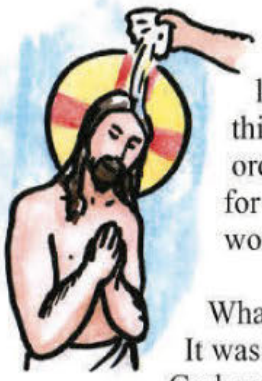
Jesus Begins His Mission



Today we celebrate the baptism of Jesus. After living with his mother for thirty years and working as an ordinary carpenter, it was time for Jesus to start His special work.

What was Jesus' special work? It was showing people the way to God and taking away their sins.

When you were baptized God was getting you ready for a special job too. He was giving you grace so that you could grow closer to Him and bring other people closer to Him too.

How can you help bring others closer to God?

Gospel: John 2, 1-11

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is an opportunity for all of us to reflect on our own Baptism. Baptism is not just "something which happened a long time ago" which "made" us Catholics. It was not just a ceremony lasting a few minutes which produced magical effects. Baptism is the beginning of a lifelong journey. It is the beginning of a process of growing into the Body of Christ as its members.

Our Baptism was essentially a community experience; it was not just a private or a family event although, sadly, in the way it was "celebrated" it may have looked like that. It involved active participation in the life of the Church and not just passive membership. Perhaps we could paraphrase the words of John F. Kennedy in his inaugural address: "Ask not what the Church can do for you, but what you can do for the Church."

By virtue of our Baptism, each one of us has been called to be a living witness to the Gospel: to be the salt of the earth, a city on a hill, a lamp radiating light for all. Our Baptism remains a never-ending call to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. So, let us today renew our faith in and our commitment to following Jesus. Let us re-affirm our readiness to carry on His work. It is a sobering fact that without our co-operation, much of God's work will never get done.

Stewardship: "John the Baptist answered them all, 'I baptize you with water; but He who is mightier than I is coming…He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.'" (Luke 3, 16)

The Catholic Catechism states that "Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will." In other words, as Baptized Catholics there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves.

Let us pray this week that we will surrender ourselves to God, place our trust in His Son, and allow the Holy Spirit to work through us for His greater glory: "Lord, keep us, your children born of water and the Spirit, faithful to our calling. In your Holy Name. Amen."

NUESTRA MISIÓN BAUTISMAL

Sintiendo todavía el espíritu de la Navidad, celebramos hoy el Bautismo del Señor. En la Navidad, Jesús se manifestó como un niño, pero era ciertamente el Hijo de Dios. En la Fiesta de Epifanía se manifestó a sí mismo a los gentiles como el Salvador de todas las personas y de todos los pueblos.

Hoy, en la Fiesta de su Bautismo, se nos revela como el Hijo amado intensamente por el Padre, acogiendo al Espíritu Santo que viene a morar en Él y a guiarle en su nueva misión pública. Ahora ya puede comenzar abiertamente su misión.

Aquí al comienzo del año nuevo, pedimos al Señor que nos haga conscientes de cómo también nosotros, por medio de nuestro propio Bautismo, somos hijas e hijos queridos del Padre, y cómo el fuego del Espíritu debería inflamarnos para continuar la misma misión de Jesús.

Oremos. "Oh Dios, con todos los cristianos renacidos en el Bautismo te damos gracias. Por medio de Jesús, todos y cada uno de nosotros hemos llegado a ser tus hijas e hijos queridos. Cólmanos con el fuego del Espíritu Santo que guio a Jesús en su vida y en su muerte. Que ese mismo Espíritu nos haga libres para servirte a ti y para servirnos unos a otros con un amor desinteresado, generoso, y agradecido. Te lo pedimos en el nombre de Jesús, el Señor. Amén."

La próxima semana, nuestra colecta especial va a apoyar a la Campaña Católica de la Comunicación. Esta Campaña construye comunidades católicas y las hace partícipe tanto en Estados Unidos como en los países en desarrollo utilizando la Internet, la radio, la televisión, y los medios de impresos.

La mitad de los fondos recaudados permanece aquí en la Arquidiócesis de Portland para financiar los proyectos locales de comunicación. ¡Su apoyo va a ayudar a difundir el mensaje del Evangelio. Para informarse más, visiten www.usccb.org/ccc.

Desde la oficina del Ministerio Juvenil:

¡Nos complace anunciar que nuestro Retiro de Confirmación va a ser en la mañana del 15 de enero!

Este año, nos hemos asociado con Liturgy Training Publications (LTP) para crear un retiro para nuestros candidatos de Confirmación. Comenzaremos nuestro retiro el 15 y luego completaremos cinco actividades de retiro durante las próximas dos semanas. Terminaremos nuestro retiro con un servicio de oración final durante nuestro tiempo normal de clase el 31 de enero.

Durante este retiro (¡y durante toda nuestra preparación para la Confirmación!), los invitamos a mantener a nuestros estudiantes en sus oraciones. Gracias.

PARA REFLEJAR

¿Qué es lo que el año nuevo nos va a ofrecer? El Señor quiere decirnos que la vida es una fiesta. ¿Una fiesta, la vida? ¿Con todos sus problemas y miserias? ¿Con el virus y la pandemia? Sí, una fiesta, si aprendemos a mirarla con ojos de fe – si llegamos a percibir lo que hace bella la vida. Todos nosotros tenemos nuestras afanes y preocupaciones diarios, tenemos días de luto y muchos problemas, pero la realidad más profunda es que no estamos solos, que tenemos a Dios que nos invita a beber el vino de su amor; un Dios que nos da a Jesús para llevarnos a sí mismo.

"Oh Dios, caldea nuestros corazones con tu mismo amor. Haz que nuestras vidas se conviertan en fiesta, canto sin fin de alegría y alabanza dirigido a ti, nuestro Dios vivo, por medio de Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Amén."

Hacer resoluciones de Año Nuevo es un hábito profundamente cristiano. Refleja un hermoso deseo de crecer en amistad con Jesucristo y refleja nuestra conciencia de que no somos todavía el pueblo que Dios quiere que seamos. ¿Cuáles son las posibilidades?

Muchos están de acuerdo que la mejor forma de acercarse a Jesús es leyendo el Evangelio diariamente. Cada día durante unos minutos lea un pasaje, puede ser de la lectura diaria de la Misa. Pregúntenle personalmente a Jesús: "Señor, ¿qué me estás diciendo a mí? ¿Qué quieres que yo haga? ¿Qué debo cambiar en mi vida si quiero seguirte más de cerca?"

Otra posibilidad es tener la disposición y la intención diario para servir, de mejorar la vida de alguien. Hemos de tratarnos unos a otros con ternura y amor. Algunas veces podemos cambiar todo el curso del día de las personas tan solo sonriéndoles, tan solo con escuchar lo que ellas tienen qué decir.

Otra posibilidad es perdonar a los demás. Al mínimo, oremos por los que hemos ofendido y volvámonos misericordiosos con estas personas. No perdonamos lo suficiente. Esto daña a nuestras familias y amistades. ¡Ayúdanos, Señor, ayúdanos!

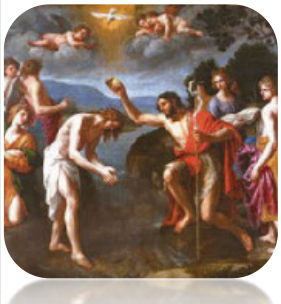
LA LITURGIA — LECTURAS

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (16 de enero)

Primera Lectura: Isaías 62, 1-5 Salmo: 95
Segunda Lectura: I Corintios 12, 4-11
Evangelio: Juan 2, 1-11

LA FIESTA DEL BAUTISMO DEL SEÑOR



En la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor, la liturgia nos recuerda nuestro propio Bautismo. En su Bautismo Jesús se percató de la misión que le esperaba, y se comprometió decididamente a la misma. Recibió la confirmación del cielo: el Padre y el Espíritu Santo estaban con Él en su misión de salvar a la familia humana. En nuestro Bautismo, el Padre nos aceptó también como a sus hijas e hijos queridos, y nos dio la misión de vivir la vida de Cristo También, en su Bautismo, Jesús vio claramente su vocación: servir a Dios y al pueblo. En nuestro Bautismo nosotros también recibimos nuestra vocación, la misma de Jesús, aunque a nuestra "pequeña escala." Que todos y cada uno de nosotros nos convirtamos en siervos fieles y en hijas e hijos amados del Padre, siendo siempre humildes siervos de los hermanos y hermanas que nos rodean.
